MORNING SERVICE

Overcoming Temptation

Nehemiah 13:1-31 | Dr Alfonse Javed

Temptation is Satan's most effective tool to win some to grow his influence in this world and distract others from the path of righteousness so that they may not be a threat to his advance. Satan desires to be worshiped but he is content as long as we do not worship God.

As we finish the book of Nehemiah and our series, "Holy Discontent," God's people once again failed to withstand temptation and abandoned the covenants they made and returned to their former ways of evil practices.

Once again, out of "Holy Discontent," Nehemiah was on a mission to purge evil from Israel.

Nehemiah exemplified three truths necessary to overcome temptation:

1. We must confront false _____ (v1-9)

2. We must confront false _____ (v10-27)

3. We must confront false _____ (v28-31)

Action Steps / Appeal

There are no Small Group notes for the summer message series on Nehemiah. Notes will be provided for the message series on Revelation in September.
