MISSIONARY UPDATE

10/07/26

“JJC”

We had an enjoyable six weeks in the US this summer, thankful for the time to visit churches and see several of you. It is always encouraging to go back home.

And often it can be a temporary challenge to return home here. The nature of life is different. In America I get to speak. People want to know our perspective. And there is immediate positive feedback, if God blesses our presentations.

Here in this country, we return to normal.

I write, but unprompted. I convey local perspectives, usually with little feedback. We communicate in relationships—with friends, with sources, and about God. But status fades and my voice is no more authoritative than anyone else's.

These are good things, I am not complaining. God's power is made perfect in weakness. Returning to this area of the world usually comes with a reminder of weakness, which is often an alien feeling to our American ways.

The first month is frequently felt as God's gracious weaning. Please pray for Christ to be seen in us, and that we would radiate his joy.

There is one interesting tidbit to relay, returning to this country. For the first time in our family history, all four children have their own rooms!
