MISSIONARY UPDATE

Mel & Dee Dee Jackson

12/04/25

AIM-Michigan

Prayer Items for December 2025

- ☐ Sewing Class The Fall class went well. Dee Dee plans to start the next one at the end of February. The ladies love improving their sewing skills and seem to enjoy and benefit from the devotionals.
- ☐ E -invited Klint (our son-in-law) and I to attend a talk with him on Muhammad a local university. It was hosted by the university's Islamic students group. Afterward, the three of us talked at length with the speaker about issues raised in the talk. It was a good evening.
- ☐ E has resisted reading the Bible for years but finally agreed to read a gospel. I suggested Luke. He said, "No, I think I'll read Mark instead, since it probably came first." Fair enough. So he has now read about 5 verses in Mark, which seems like nothing. But since it quoted from Isaiah and Malachi, he decided to read the 8 chapters of Malachi and a good portion of Isaiah (as background, if you will!). Then he started reading 1 Kings, saying "because I want to learn more about the prophet Elijah." Next, he started reading Hebrews since, in answering one of his questions, I had mentioned something in Hebrews. Finally, he said, "I need to stop reading Hebrews and get back to Mark, but Hebrews is juicy!" (his words). So it has finally happened. He is actually reading the Bible— even devouring it. I see him as being like the rich young ruler who came to Jesus. A miracle is needed for him to come to the Lord. Please continue to pray for him.
- ☐ Tutoring I repeatedly find the students are being given assignments and readings that are intended to manipulate them. It is pretty depressing. For example, one high school girl had to read a book about a man who killed someone who earlier had killed the man's brother. The author blamed his actions on "toxic masculinity." Please pray that I will be a help to them in their studies and also for much wisdom in what I say (and refrain from saying!) about their readings.
- ☐ Retiring! The time has come. I (Mel) am 75 and, after much prayer, we have decided it is time to officially retire from the mission as of the end of this year. That certainly doesn't mean we will stop tutoring and interacting almost daily with Mu$ folks and especially with E. But I have felt myself struggling to maintain the pace of activities. So it is time. Also, Dee Dee and I are hoping to move down near Melodee and Klint and family (second child due in January!) some time in the next year or so. We have already located a group working with Mu$ folks in Ft. Wayne, and hope to get involved there after our move. Thank you all. You have prayed and financially supported us for many years (we joined AIM in 1982 and at least some of you have supported us for over 40 years!). May God bless you all very much. We do plan on sending out regular prayer emails so if you are willing to keep on praying, we want to keep you informed. We love you all.
