Prayer Items for July-August 2024

- Mel and 3 other believers went camping with 27 Afghan men. There were many opportunities to share about spiritual things with these men. Five of the men had come on last year's camping trip and the rest were new. Please pray for these men that their interest in spiritual things would continue.
- A Christian Afghan woman and her child moved into the area. Please pray that they would settle in well and that she could become involved in spreading the good news to the Afghan community.
- We had a delightful time visiting with Mel's friend E and his family. They served us a great home-cooked Middle Eastern meal. Afterwards we all chatted for a few hours and enjoyed the time. One of their girls enjoyed quietly sitting in the room and listening to all of us. Thanks for praying for that time with them. Continued prayers are appreciated as Mel and E discuss various issues by email. Also, E really wanted to see our granddaughter, Gloria. Due to car issues, Melodee, Clint, and Gloria were not able to attend. So E wants to know when next they will be with us so we can all get together then.
- The family where I tutor the son in chess is having to find an alternative time for me to come. Please pray that the dad's work schedule will allow this to continue.
- We hope to hold the sewing class this fall, starting in September. More volunteers are needed. Please pray that we will find some. I am sure many ladies know how to sew and at least some of them would love to help with the class. We just have to locate them!
